City tour in Lima: Main Square, cathedral of Lima & San Francisco Convent

At the scheduled time, we will pick you up at the hotel to begin a tour of the city's main avenues, boulevards, and squares. The tour will begin with a panoramic view of Huaca Pucllana, a pre-Columbian site from the 4th century, found today in the chic Miraflores district. This adobe structure was used for administrative and ceremonial purposes during the time of the 'Lima Culture', which flourished some 1,500 years ago. Then, we will continue the exploration of Colonia Lima.

First, we will stop off at the Main Square, to get a chance to explore the square on foot and admire the exteriors of the Governement palace, the Cathedral of Lima, and the City Hall, all examples of Lima's still-present colonial architectural opulence.

We will visit the Cathedral of Lima; as walking through the Cathedral's numerous chapels, we'll travel to the past and discover various architectural styles (from Renaissance to Neo-Classical), and learn about the religious history of Peru.

- Half Day Special Cusco City Tour: Sacsayhuaman, Neighborhood, church & Artisan of San Blas, Qoricancha & Cathedral

We will visit the Fortress of Sacsayhuaman, a colossal structure built with huge carved rocks jointed with absolute accuracy, this astounding sample of the Incan military architecture is, undoubtedly, the greatest architectonic work of the Tahuantinsuyo. But, in addition, it proves the undeniable firmness of the great administrative capacity of the empire and its powerful logistic system capable of mobilizing and organizing such a work.

As of the Spaniards arrival its aspect has changed a lot, since this fortress was used as a hewn stone to build the colonial Cusco.

We will explore the artistic and bohemian neighborhood of San Blas, home to many renowned artists. Through narrow, cobblestone streets, we arrive at the main plaza of San Blas, which is surrounded by many well-known artisan workshops, such as MENDÍVIL, OLAVE, and MÉRIDA, among others. We will take our time to visit some workshops and contemplate the artist's works. Next, we will continue to the San Blas Church, built in 1563 on top of an Inca Sanctuary. The church is a simple structure, famous for its beautiful pulpit that is carved from one single cedar tree representing one of the most exquisite works of wood carving in the Spanish churrigueresque style done by indigenous hands.

Just a few blocks away, you will discover one of the most impressive buildings of Incan Cusco: The Qoricancha (the Golden Temple) - a temple dedicated to the worship of the Sun God, whose interior walls were said to have been covered in gold.

We will complete the day with a stroll through the Main Square, where we will visit the Cathedral and admire its exquisite vestibules and priceless paintings from the Cusco School of the 17th and 18th centuries.
